JOHN [illegible] HYDE PROPRIETOR.

THURSDAY MAY 23 1872.

MR GREELEY'S ACCEPTANCE

In to [illegible] which we publish in another column Mr Greeley formally accepts the Cincinnati nomination and is now the only candidate in the field opposed to the Republican party and [illegible] he puts that the action of the Democrats at Baltimore will make him the leader of all the forces arrayed against the party with which he has been so long and prominently identified But while his endorsement of the Liberal programme is emphatic and his faith in the congratulatory dispatches unbounded the letter does not give evidence of that burning zeal for his principles which the Democracy would have been pleased to witness With all its apparent frankness, and in spite of the vigorous phraseology which flows from the pen of the great journalist, there are more evidences of caution in the structure of this letter than are found in his writings generally, and it is safe to assume that the document is materially toned down from what it would have been written immediately after the announcement of his success at Cincinnati

The object of this caution will be variously interpreted but the most obvious explanation would seem to be that Mr Greeley is not quite ready to [illegible] into the desert alone, and that [illegible] provided from the course to is intended as a hint to Baltimore that he cannot safely be counted on to pull Democratic chestnuts from the fire unless they give him unequivocal assurance of the emoluments In other words he is pleased to accept the nomination of the Liberals quite ready to declare for a dissolution of existing parties, very willing to be the leader around whom "the people" may rally but not quite prepared to give up his choice of associates, if the regular organizations shall develop a continued vitality If the Democratic party accept him as their candidate he will deem it safe to assume the role of a popular nominee, but should the Bourbons put another leader in the field, we judge by his letter that Mr. Greeley will not be disposed to aid that rival by a guerilla warfare that would be probloss to himself We think therefore that his letter has a greater significance for the Democrats than for anyone else and it is intended to hang over the Baltimore Convention like a two-edged sword

It will be noticed that Mr Greeley studiously avoids that denunciation of the Republican party which has furnished the staple ingredient of Liberal rhetoric and oratory and that while he adroitly re-casts the platform to suit the exigencies of his record he entirely ignores, by word of assent or commendation, the insulting Address which formed the prologue to the resolutions of Cincinnati In comparing the platform with Mr Greeley's interpretation thereof, the careful reader will detect the saving clauses of the transaction in various important declarations At this time we will only call attention to one of the most obvious cases of flinkering It is well known that Mr Greeley was the most vigorous and importunate advocate of the so-called Ku-Klux legislation which the Cincinnati platform unqualified denounced Which therefore, Mr Greeley comes to the support of the doctrine he carefully writes this —

Third—That subject to our constitutional obligation to maintain the equal rights of all citizens, our policy should be at local self government and not at central usurpation, etc

It will be seen that the latitude of opinion afforded in the first clause of the Cincinnati ample shelter for the retention of the Republican with a second clause of a similar character and a [illegible] depart from the [illegible] which declares plainly —

[illegible] government, with impartial suffrage [illegible] and the rights of all citizens [illegible]

Similar [illegible] may be read [illegible] but the change of emphasis is sufficiently marked to indicate a difference in the [illegible] to be intended as a hint to Baltimore that he cannot safely be counted on to pull Democratic chestnuts from the fire unless they give him unequivocal assurance of the emoluments In other words he is pleased to accept the nomination of the Liberals quite ready to declare for a dissolution of existing parties, very willing to be the leader around whom "the people" may rally but not quite prepared to give up his choice of associates, if the regular organizations shall develop a continued vitality If the Democratic party accept him as their candidate he will deem it safe to assume the role of a popular nominee, but should the Bourbons put another leader in the field, we judge by his letter that Mr. Greeley will not be disposed to aid that rival by a guerilla warfare that would be probloss to himself We think therefore that his letter has a greater significance for the Democrats than for anyone else and it is intended to hang over the Baltimore Convention like a two-edged sword

Similar [illegible] may be read [illegible] but the change of emphasis is sufficiently marked to indicate a difference in the [illegible] as that which Mr Greeley appeals, will not be surprised if his friends and admirers [illegible] Grant is fairly in the saddle [illegible] for the war and [illegible] after the 4th of July [illegible] Democrats [illegible] to furnish the information [illegible] for President [illegible] is not to [illegible] Democrats [illegible] President [illegible] have no doubt [illegible] at Baltimore [illegible]

The Treaty of Washington

DISCUSSION IN THE LONDON PAPERS!

THE PALL MALL GAZETTE ABANDONS THE TREATY!

The Compromise Discreditable and Dangerous!

THE HERALD'S SPECIAL.

NEW YORK, May 22. A special to the herald says: "The English papers continue to discuss the Treaty of Washington and the supplementary article thereto with undiminished interest. The editorials generally are inspired by the desire to prevent the failure of the arbitration and to save the Treaty. An article to a contrary cause, printed by the Pall Mall Gazette to-night, is remarkable for its truthful and just appreciation of the danger of endeavoring to save it at the expense of national susceptibility. We extract the following:—

FROM THE PALL MALL GAZETTE—LET THE TREATY SLIDE—HUMILIATION FOR ONE OR BOTH—ENGLISH OPINION.

The whole drift of feeling and opinion in England justifies saying that the worst thing to do with the Treaty is to save it. Saving the Treaty means offence and humiliation to America or to England or to both nations. It means a renewal and not an abatement of the ill feeling it was intended to allay. How to save the Treaty means who shall eat leek, or whether some means cannot be invented whereby both parties shall agree to eat it in each others' presence. American papers appear to exclaim against the adoption of the supplementary article. Here there is only one opinion, and that is, that its acceptance would be discreditable and dangerous. Both peoples would be pacified and content at once if the Treaty, and negotiations connected therewith were dropped as an irremediable blunder for which the two Governments are alone to blame. That is the proper fate of the Treaty and the only safe and peaceful way of disposing of it."

THE SPECIAL'S COMMENTS—THE PRESSURE FOR AND AGAINST THE TREATY.

"This article states exactly the situation in England and is a just expression of the best opinion here. It is certain that the persons, bankers and financial agents and others, who are determined to save the Treaty at whatever cost, without regard to the national dignity or honor, are bringing about dangerous complications. The same with those unwise politicians who are willing to make forty capital out of an international difficulty.

DANGER OF FURTHER AGITATION.

Further negotiation of the Treaty will only continue an irritation that may eventually put two proud nations in an attitude from which war can be the only possible issue. The Treaty should be dropped immediately for the sake of national amity, good-will and peace."

FROM WASHINGTON.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

WASHINGTON, May 22. The civil rights bill which passed in the Senate this morning, provides that if the owners or persons in charge of any public inn or any place of public amusement or entertainment for which a license is required, and the owners or persons in charge of any stagecoach, railroad or other means of public carriage for freight, make any distinction as to admission or accommodation on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude, they shall be punishable for each offence by a fine of not less than $500, or more than $5000, and shall be liable to suit for damages in any United States Courts.

THE AMNESTY BILL

provides that all political disabilities imposed by the 3d section of the 14th article of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States are hereby removed from all persons whomsoever, except Senators and Representatives of the 30th and 37th Congress, officers in the judicial, military and naval services of the United States, heads of departments and foreign ministers of the United States.

REPORT OF THE ROBESON INQUIRY.

The report of Messrs. Sargent, Peters and Warren, the majority of the House Select Committee on the charges against the Secretary of the Navy, entirely exonerate Secretary Robeson. Mr. Blair, of the minority committee, condemns the Secretary for reopening and paying the accounts of the Secretary and for other matters. Mr. Archer joins with the majority in exonerating the Secretary from the charges of corruption and dishonesty, but with Blair believes the Secretary guilty of a violation of the law, as also the contract with John Roach and others.

The report of the majority says: "His accusers totally failed to produce a single witness or any proof whatever tending in the slightest degree to maintain any of the charges, or to throw even a doubt or suspicion upon the personal character of the Secretary. If it were desirable to refer to the testimony in detail it would not be for any purpose of refuting, but only to exhibit the malignant and wanton character of the libels which gave rise to the investigation. The committee feel justified in denouncing them as the most ever published in this country, and as a shameful perversion of the privileges of the press. After a careful investigation they were unable to find errors or irregularities of administration which would justify any action by the House, or cast any discredit upon the Secretary. Most of the matters which have been even attempted to be criticised have been acts of bureau affairs following the routine long been established under the former administrations and decisions upon the statutes made by former Secretaries, such officers acting with the best motives and for the interests of the government."

RELATIVE TO THE

the committee say that the testimony not only exonerates the Secretary from all suspicion of any bad faith or improvident contracts, but shows a laudable effort on his part to utilize public property by taking a valuable ship rendered useless through defective machinery and converting her, with the least possible expense into a first class and efficient vessel of war.

THE SCOR CLAIM.

The committee say that in paying the Scor claim of $83,000, the Secretary acted within the spirit of the law, that his action was demanded by justice and equity as the non payment of this bill would have been a gross injustice.

CONCLUSION.

Other charges are declared totally false, and the committee, in conclusion, congratulate Congress and the country that no stain or suspicion rests upon the Secretary.

BANK SUSPENSIONS.

The Comptroller of the Currency has appointed Receivers for the Waverly National Bank of New York and First National Bank of Fort Smith, Ark.

VISIT TO THE PRESIDENT.

The members of the Homœopathic Institute called on the President to-day.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

NEW RAILROAD.

At a stockholder's meeting of the Nashua, Acton & Boston Railroad, reports were read showing that the iron will arrive in June and the road be completed in November.

UTAH.

THE COURT MUDDLE.

SALT LAKE, May 22. Judge Hawley of the U. S. District Court at Beaver, refuses to recognize a Territorial Justice, and sentenced now Justice officer in the Territory is authorized to serve a vessel.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 22.

Tuesday night's session.—At 12.45 A. M. Mr. Fenton moved to lay the bill on the table—lost, yeas 18; nays 27.

Mr. Vickers argued that the bil was clearly unconstitutional and offered an amendment that, before suspending the writ of habeas corpus in any State, the President shall be satisfied by affidavits of at least ten respectable residents of the counties or districts concerned, that such unlawful combinations or other disorders exist there as to make the suspension necessary.

The habeas corpus suspension bill passed about 4 o'clock by a vote of 28 to 13. The Senate then by agreement between the Democrats and Republicans, took up the supplemental civil rights bill offered by Mr. Carpenter. It is like Mr. Sumner's, but not applying to schools, cemeteries or juries, and it was passed, yeas 27, nays 14. The last House amnesty bill was then passed. Yeas 38; nays 2, Messrs. Nye and Sumner, the latter declaring himself in favor of amnesty but voting against the bill because the Senate rejected his original civil rights bill which he had offered as an amendment.

At 10.30 A. M. the Senate, after an all night's session, adjourned until 3 P. M.

The Senate reassembled at 3 o'clock. A number of bills were reported from committees and placed on the calendar.

On motion of Mr. Edmunds the Senate proceeded to consideration of supplemental apportionment bill which gives additional representatives to several States which have large fractions.

Mr. Hitchcock moved to add Nebraska as entitled to 2 additional representatives. The amendment was rejected and the bill passed.

At 4 o'clock the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Sargent of Cal. presented the majority report, and Mr. Blair of Mich. the minority report of this select committee on charges against the Secretary of the Navy.

The Speaker presented the House amnesty bill as concurred in by the Senate, and the question was discussed as to whether or not the President's signature was required for it to become a law.

The Speaker said that the rule had been to send such bills to the President and he should do the same with this, unless it was desired to submit the question to the House.

Mr. Bingham of Ohio objected.

The Speaker then laid the bill before the House.

Mr. Randall of Penn. moved that Mr. Rogers of North Carolina, be sworn in.

The Speaker refused to entertain the motion until the bill was signed. He did not believe the House would have to wait very long to know the President's disposition in regard to it.

Mr. Garfield of Ohio offered a resolution directing an investigation into the charges against Supervising Architect Mullet, as made by Mr. Farnsworth in his speech yesterday.

The resolution was adopted with an amendment requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to report specific answers to the charges.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the sundry civil appropriation bill.

Having progressed as far as the 42d page of the bill which contains 53 pages, the committee rose.

Mr. Wheeler of N. Y. introduced a bill granting 25 acres of the military reservation at Plattsburg, N. Y., to the New York & Canada Railroad Co.

THE VIRGINIUS—REPORT OF THE UNITED STATES NAVAL OFFICER.

NEW YORK, May 22. The report of the commander of the U. S. steamer Kansas which convoyed the Virginius out of the reach of the Spanish frigate Pizarro is refreshing reading. At one time it looked like fight and Commander White, a Boston boy, cannot refrain from breaking through the cold conventionalities of official correspondence to let the Secretary know the feelings that worked in his Yankee bosom. He says: "I cannot conclude the report without expressing to you with what pride I looked upon the officers and men of this vessel, as we steamed out of the harbor. As they stood on the sanded deck, armed and equipped at the loaded guns, I could read determination in the faces of all. Every man would have done his duty. Should an engagement have taken place, I leave it to those who believe in Dahlgren guns and American Men-of-wars-men to conjecture what would have been the result.

CAPTURED.

Havana, May 22. The Spanish gunboat Destello captured the English schooner William Julius at Savana la Mor and brought her to Nuevitos. The crew consists of Captain Wilson and 15 men.

GEN. BUTLER ON THE TREATY. General Butler read a speech occupying more than an hour on Tuesday evening, in support of his resolution of inquiry concerning the report of a speech by Sir Stafford Northcote.

Gen. Banks replied briefly, and said the only question now was whether the President should be called upon for certain information. He thought General Butler attached entirely too much importance to the utterances of Sir Stafford Northcote at Exeter. He did not apprehend that the loss of the treaty would lead to a war or serious disturbance. It would only induce a loss of confidence in the powers of diplomacy to settle disturbing questions.

Without taking action on the resolution, the House at 10.15 P. M. adjourned.

SPEAKER BLAINE. It will be seen that Speaker Blaine has been renominated, as he eminently deserved to be, by his Republican constituents of the old Kennebec District of Maine. Though still a young man, with a great many campaigns and an unlimited power of rising in him, this is Mr. Blaine's sixth nomination—a fact equally creditable to him and to the district which so clearly demonstrates that it knows when it is well off.—That such a district should endorse President Grant was a matter of course.—[Boston Journal.

We clip the following from Tuesday's Boston Traveller:

One of the results of the rigid enforcement of the Maine Liquor law has been exhibited in the passage up State street to-day, of five wagon-loads of counters, ale pumps and other paraphernalia of bar-rooms, en route to uptown auction rooms for sale. They were sent here from Portland, Me., the owners there having no further use for them, and will be sold at almost any price, the liquor traffic in the Pine Tree State being almost broken up. It is stated that seven of the most prominent rumsellers in Portland have relinquished their former business and embarked in other and more honorable channels of trade, and that many others in the State have done likewise.

It is said that Mr. Greeley wrote a congratulatory despatch as follows: "Look out for the tricks of the enemy. I am taking it calmly. The tokens are unerring." But the chairman of a meeting translated it thus:—"Lift up your fiddlesticks while the air is balmy, and look out for rotten herring."

The New York World is anxious to ascertain how much strength Mr. Greeley can bring over to the Democracy from the Republican party before it accepts his candidacy. "In this State," remarks the World, "Mr. Greeley has hardly a corporal's guard of Republican supporters, whereas there are multitudes of Democrats who cannot be persuaded to vote for him under any circumstances."

Both branches of Congress have voted to adjourn on Wednesday of next week. There is a probability that the Senate will be ready for an adjournment by that time, but the House will be made to postpone the adjournment, at the end of four weeks.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

—Very high tides yesterday.

—The trees are leaving out rapidly.

—Stone & Murry's Circus exhibits here Saturday, June 1st.

—Fine moonlight from a very full moon, last night.

—We are indebted to Hon. Lot M. Morrill for interesting public documents.

—Grass on the parks is very fresh and green. The late rain has helped vegetation greatly.

—The schooner Joseph Oakes has arrived at this port with a cargo of coal for the Portland steamer.

—A car-load of choice cattle came from St. John by rail yesterday to go to Fall River, by steamer, to-day.

—Workmen have commenced to cover the E. & N. A. Railway bridge at Mattawamkeag.

—A large quantity of last-blocks owned by D. C. Grant & Son and others, is awaiting transportation at Winn.

—A new hearse for the town of Lincoln arrived here by boat from Boston yesterday, and will go to its destination by rail to-day.

—Potatoes were dull at 35@40 cents per bushel in this market yesterday. This is nearly 20 cents less than the price a fortnight ago.

—A lot of new fish barrels floated down the Kenduskeag yesterday, showing that there had been trouble among the scows up stream.

—The Maine Central and Knox & Lincoln Railroads will probably have a steamboat to connect their roads at Rockland with the islands during the summer season.

Our neighbor headed Greeley's letter of acceptance: "Barkis is willin'." What answer does "Peggotty" make through the Commercial?

—We understand that Messrs. Frank Gilman of Winn and James F. Kimball of this city have bought out the business of Hayford & Webster at Medway and will commence trade there next month.

PERSONAL. J. M. Lunt, Superintendent, and J. W. Clapp, General Ticket Agent of the Maine Central Railroad, and Geo. F. Field of Boston, General Passenger Agent of the Eastern Railroad, were in town yesterday.

—James Morley, one of the crew of the ship R. P. Buck of Belfast fell overboard and was drowned on the 7th inst., just after the vessel had left the Mersey on her passage from Liverpool to Boston.

—We are indebted to Harvey M. Smith, Esq., of Orrington, for an exceedingly interesting and valuable book published in 1797, only two or three copies of which are now in existence.

DROWNED. A river-driver, whose name we could not learn, but who belonged in Belfast, N. B., was drowned on Tuesday, in Scott Brook, near Lambert Lake, where was assisting to run Todd's drive.

—B. H. Beale Post, No. 12, G. A. R., has engaged Rev. F. T. Hazelwood, Pastor of the First Baptist church in this city, to deliver the address at Mount Hope, on Memorial Day, 30th inst.

—Among the delegates to the National Institute of Homœopathy, now in session at Washington, D. C., we notice the names of Drs. G. P. Jeffords and Wm. Gallupe of this city, H. C. Bradford of Lewiston, and N. G. H. Pulsifer of Waterville.

The E. & N. A. Railway Co. received by vessel yesterday five new box cars from D. Knowlton & Co., Camden. The cars weigh only 6½ tons each—about one ton less than the ordinary car, and Mr. Knowlton thinks he can make cars equally strong still lighter.

—The contractors for the erection of the Eastern State Normal School building at Castine, have already broken ground, and will doubtless proceed with all reasonable dispatch to fulfil their contract, within the time specified.

—Mr. F. P. Wood has for sale at his store in Kenduskeag block the "Toilet Smoothing Iron," a miniature smoothing iron, nickel-plated, which can be heated on an ordinary gas-burner, and which the ladies will find very convenient for smoothing laces, ribbons, etc.

—The new cart just finished by Messrs. B. N. Thoms & Son, to which allusion was made in yesterday's edition, was manufactured to order for Messrs. A. L. & R. C. Boyd, the well known confectionery, fruit and cigar dealers of this city, and will be used by Mr. C. O. Banks, their travelling agent.

—Certain bridge is now impassable for teams, Mr. Daniel Farrell having commenced removing the planking and sleepers over the west branch of the Kenduskeag stream, preparatory to fulfilling his contract for the erection of the mason-work in the piers and abutments.

—We saw last evening in Messrs. Lincoln & Parsons' office on Exchange st., a large turtle brought from the West Indies on the schooner Joseph Oakes. His Turtleship was quite lively in a big tub of salt water, and seemed to feel not quite at home in his strange quarters.

BRIDGE CARRIED AWAY. We learn that Mr. R. R. Park's drive jammed at the bridge across the Baskahegan stream in the town of Danforth, carrying away the piers and letting the bridge down to be smashed and floated down stream. The bridge was about 200 feet long and cost $2,500, and its destruction will be a serious loss to the town.

—A handsome new wagon, built by Abbott, Downing & Co., Concord, N. H., came on the steamer Cambridge yesterday, for the Eastern Express Co.'s agency in this city.—The wagon is painted uniformly with all used by the company—the body green and the running works red—and weighs 1040 lbs, being intended for one horse.

SEIZURES. The Police were fortunate in their daily raid in search of unlawfully-kept intoxicating liquors, and made seizures on the premises of Thomas McCann, Daniel Donnelly and Daniel Golden, besides finding considerable quantities of contraband fluid in sheds and out-houses in the rear of Buildings on Union, Broad and Water streets.

FREIGHTS. Fifty-five cars were received at the E. & N. A. station yesterday, including two loaded with railroad ties for W. C. Pitman, one with slate for the B. & P. Slate Co., four with ship-timber for Mr. McQuinn of Brewer, two with hay from Woodstock for Robinson & Co., four with logs for the railway company's wharf.

CONCERT. As an additional attraction to the concert in Norumbega Hall Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, well known to our citizens as accomplished pianists, will perform a piano-duett. The concert promises to be very enjoyable and will doubtless be listened to by a large audience. Tickets with reserved seats may be procured at Bugbee & Co.'s.

INSTALLATION. At a regular meeting of Nelson Dingley Lodge, No. 132, I. O. of Good Templars, the following officers were installed by H. G. O. McDonald, D. G. W. C. T.:—Noah Johnston, W. C. M.; Mrs. Althea Frost, W. D. M.; Jos. Parks, W. I. G.; Edward Morrill, W. O. G.; Miss Antonia Pelletier, W. R. H. S.; Miss Letitia Vickery, W. L. H. S.; Charles H. Cowan, P. W. C. T.

THE GUARDS ARE COMING. The Jameson Guards of Bangor, commanded by Gen'l White, have voted to visit Lynn on Tuesday, the 25th of June, at which time they will be the guests of the Woolredge Cadets, Co. I. The Jameson Guards is one of the best companies in the State of Maine, and is especially noted for its superiority in drill and discipline; and we can promise them a warm reception at the hands of Co. I, who were their guests in June of last year. [Lynn Transcript.

"MARITANA." We had the pleasure last evening of attending a full rehearsal of the opera of "Maritana," which a large number of our best amateur vocalists and instrumentalists have had in preparation for some months past, and we can confidently assure our city readers that a rich and rare musical treat is in store for them. The opera will be brought out some time next month with every accessory needful for its most complete presentation—scenery and costumes of the best, having been engaged in Boston and New York.

THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG. This magnificent painting was viewed and admired by large numbers of our citizens yesterday, and the lectures by Col. Bachelder on the great battle of the war, were, as heretofore, listened to with that deep interest which the recital of glorious deeds always excites. We trust that those of our people who have not already visited Music Hall to see this triumph of art and hear a detailed description of the battle by a gentleman who, better than any man living, is acquainted with all its features and incidents, will not let the opportunity pass. Those who have attended the lectures and seen the painting will go again—we need say nothing to them—but we fear that many will let the week slip by and neglect attending until it is too late. Will our readers please remember that the painting will be on exhibition but three nights longer, and improve the opportunity to get a clear understanding of one of the most important events in the history of the nation.

THE DRIVES. Our correspondent "Nopen writes, that the first Mattawamkeag drive was at the head of Five Islands yesterday, and progressing rapidly. This drive takes twenty millions out of the Mattawamkeag, and it is expected will be joined by about ten millions more, brought down from Medway. Wm. R. Hersey's drive from Mud Brook on the West Branch, was brought down to Mattawamkeag to join the above-mentioned drive, on the 17th. About half the force on the Mattawamkeag drive—some 30 men—after assisting to drive to the Penobscot, have gone back to Oxbow, with Mr. McLain, to bring down the second drive, which will probably equal the first in size, taking in the drives of Dennis Mullin and others from the Molunkus. The late rains raised the Mattawamkeag river a foot and a half, and also gave the water in the upper Penobscot a lift that is helping the drives along.

ADMINISTRATORS' SALE OF REAL ESTATE, ETC. Yesterday morning at 10 o'clk, by order of the Administrators, R. S. Prescott, Esq., sold at auction a large amount of real estate and personal property belonging to the estate of the late Hon. S. H. Dale.—The sale was made in the store Nos. 41 & 42 West Market Square, and was attended by a large number of people. The bidding was spirited, and the property was sold as follows:—

Two lots with cottage, at Sandy Point, Stockton,—to W. H. Strickland for $500.

Great queen! as at fame, H Greeley s
Convention was not held in vain

"If G"ls his name
And I will not delay
In regard to the same
What these letters imply,
But that a m-b-i-tion between 'am
Is a fact to which you may rely

It was May—on the third—
And quite soft was the game
Though nary a word
Said the sharps 'bout the same
Till they suddenly neutered an Horace,
In a way that I cannot but blame

The trick to be played
Was to horsewoggle Grant,
Although what was said
Was but humcomple and rant
Though (treeley wa'nt there he'd a hand in,
And furnished the most of the cant.

The ballot and vote
For "one Adams" was bosh,
Likewise you might note
That Gratz Brown wouldn't wash,
Then Davis and Trumbull and others
Played low to the "Galvanized Squash"

The dodges then played
Were quite shocking to see,
Though objections were made,
They couldn't agree,
So, really, this queer nomination
Was gussed by a mis-for l tee

When Greeley was told
As the news came to hand
Of the dodges sold,
He was childlike and bland,
When he writes "What I think of Conventions,"
We'll learn how the leather was tanned

Which is why I observe,
And I say it with pain,
That for running a curve,
And avoiding the plain
Live issues at stake, Horace Greeley's

MISS SAWYER'S SALVE.

HI! If you have a salve combining soothing and healing properties, with no dangerous ingredient, it should be ready at hand for many pains and aches, wounds and bruises to which flesh is heir. Its more easily applied than many other remedies, never producing a painful effect but always relieving pain however severe

It is prepared by Miss Sawyer, who has used it in her own extensive treatment of the sick, for twenty twenty years, with great success

The principal diseases for which this salve is recommended are, Chilblains, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Old Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Sprains, Burns, Fever Sores, Felons, Pimples, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Barber's Itch, Dandruff, Boils, Ring worms, Corns, Bites of Insects, Cancers, Toothache, Erysipelas, Sore Nipples, Bad Legs, Sore Heads, Itch, Scald Head, Teething, Chapped Hands, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, Croup, Cracked Lips, and Sores on Children

It never fails to cure Rheumatism if properly applied Rub upon well with the hand three times a day. In several cases it has cured palsied limbs. For Piles it has been discovered to be a sure remedy Persons that have been afflicted for years have been relieved by a few applications For Erysipelas it works wonders, allaying the inflammation and quieting the patient. For Chapped Hands it produces a cure immediately Let those with Salt Rheum obtain the Salve, and apply it freely, and they will find it invaluable It is good in cases of Scrofula and Tumors Cancers have been cured with it. The best Salve ever invented for Scald Head and Sore Nipples. No very injurious, but sure to afford relief. Sore or Weak Eyes—Rub on the Salve gently once or twice a day. Cures dollars by putting it into ears on a piece of cotton. For Felons this is superior to anything known. For Pimples this new Salve is charm. For Burns and Scalds, apply the Salve at once and it gives immediate relief For Old Sores, apply once a day.

Not among the least of the invaluable properties of Miss SAWYER'S SALVE are its beneficial effects on the hair Rubbed on the scalp, in five or six different parts, it promotes the growth of the hair, prevents it turning gray, and on bald spots it produces a new growth of hair No lady should be without this invaluable article as an indispensable cosmetic for the toilet. It eradicates dandruff and disease from the head, and blotches and pimples from the face.

From Mrs. ELIZABETH COOMBS, Brunswick.

Brunswick, April 4, 1867.

MISS SAWYER, I received your letter last evening, and was very glad you concluded to use the Salve. I think I can do well with it, and it will be quite an accommodation to my husband, as he cannot get along without it He has tried everything else and has never found anything that healed his leg as the Salve of yours, and we have both found it to be all, and even more, than you recommend it to be We have had it in the family five or six years, and have used it for everything and can truly say we have never found anything equal. I use it for a weak back, and it acts like a charm. Mr Coombs has had a Fever Sore on his leg for thirty years, and would be a cripple to-day, if he had not found a remedy in your Salve It keeps all healed and takes out the inflammation, proud flesh and swelling and does for him all that he can ask. I can recommend it for a good many things that you have not, for I use it for everything I consider it invaluable in a family If you can put this testimony together, and it can be of any service to you, you are welcome.

Yours, &c, ELIZABETH COOMBS.
